County Mayor Brooks informed CLB that this is a step to dispose of cremains and it is required that litigation be filed through the court system and this is informing the commission that the litigation has been filed. Mayor Brooks said that an Attorney General's opinion has been requested as to the method the county should dispose of any cremains going forward. County Attorney Estep advised that these are cremains that have not been asked for or any interest expressed in, that no action will be taken pending due process and the court's ruling and that he would keep the CLB updated.

Following further discussion, no further action taken.
